TIJMR – FINAL SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Authors submitting revised manuscripts to The International Journal of Multidisciplinary Research (TIJMR) are requested to strictly follow the guidelines outlined below:

---

1. Similarity

- The revised manuscript should not exceed 10% similarity, including AI-generated content.
- Ensure that both content and language are original, with appropriate paraphrasing to to minimize overlap.

---

2. Reviewer Comments

- Authors must address all reviewer comments point-by-point.
- Revisions should be clearly reflected in the manuscript.
- A detailed response letter should accompany the submission, outlining how each comment was addressed.

---

3. Plagiarism Report

- The report should be verified and duly signed, confirming the similarity index is within the allowed limit (<10%).

---

4. Journal Formatting Guidelines

- The manuscript must be revised according to TIJMR's formatting and editorial guidelines.
- This includes font, referencing style, figures, tables, headings, and citation formats as prescribed on the journal website.

---

5. Resubmission Deadline

- The following documents must be resubmitted within 10 days from the date of communication:
  - Revised FINAL manuscript
  - Rebuttal  letter to reviewers' comments

---

Note:

Late submissions or non-compliance with any of the above may result in rejection or delays in publication. For detailed formatting and editorial policies, please refer to the official TIJMR website.

https://tijmr.org/index.php/journal/about/submissions

Editor, TIJMR